

Withdrawal request form

For regular withdrawal and partial or full surrender

Important information to consider before making a withdrawal or full surrender.

Taking money out from your policy is an important decision and may affect your financial goals. We are keen to ensure you have considered your options and have all the information you need to make this decision. If you are unsure about your options or whether cashing in all or part of your policy is the right thing to do, we recommend you speak to your financial professional.

Did you know?

There are alternatives to surrendering your policy which include reducing your premium amount, suspending your premiums or switching your funds. Before you make a final decision, we recommend that you take advice from your financial professional.

- Take a partial surrender. If you need a particular amount and your policy is worth more than this, you can take a partial surrender and leave the rest invested subject to the minimum amount that must be left in your policy.
- Reduce your premium amount. You may be able to reduce your premium and still keep the benefits that your policy has to offer depending on the premium amount you pay.
- Suspension of premiums. Your policy may allow you to take a break from paying your premiums for a period of time without charge. Any benefits that you have will be covered if there is enough value in your policy to sustain them.
- Switching your funds. If your funds don't meet your current needs, you can switch your investment. A full list of funds can be found on our website. Please note that switches are not available if any policy owner(s) is resident in the United States* including any United States federally controlled territory.
*The definition of US includes the 50 United States of America, the District of Columbia, Guam, Puerto Rico, US Virgin Islands, American Samoa and the Northern Mariana Islands.
- Regular withdrawals. If you would like to receive money from your policy without incurring any surrender charge, it may be possible to set-up regular withdrawals, subject to your policy terms and conditions.

Stock Market and economic uncertainty

Uncertainty in the financial markets may make you apprehensive about your investments. When stock markets go down, you may lose confidence and be tempted to either stop investing or switch your investments. You need to remember that with your policy you are investing for the medium to long term. Stock market values go up and down over time, so it's important to resist the temptation to react to short term stock market changes and instead stay focussed on your reasons for investing and your long term financial goals.

Other things to think about

Establishment charges usually reduce over time, so if you are no longer paying these, your policy may now be subject to fewer deductions which may improve future performance of your investment. Your policy may be benefiting from this now and if you take money out and reinvest it in a new investment product, charges may apply during the early years which will reduce the return on your investment.

Charges

A surrender charge may be deducted depending on when you surrender some or all of your policy – please refer to the 'a guide to your payment options'.

Bank charges for funds transfer will have to be paid by you when you choose to receive your withdrawal/surrender amount by telegraphic transfer.

Where necessary, we will arrange any foreign exchange transactions and deduct the cost of this from your payment – we cannot take responsibility for the rate of exchange applied by the bank.

There may also be charges when selling units in a different currency to your withdrawal or surrender proceeds.

For further details of the charges, please read your policy terms and conditions and product literature.

Protection benefits

If you have life or critical illness cover on your policy, your cover may be reduced by regular withdrawals and partial surrenders.

Zurich HelpPoint – What we can do for you

We can give you all the information about your policy and help you understand the values and charges. We can guide you through all the options available on your policy to suit your needs.

You can contact our HelpPoint using the contact details on page 9. Please note that we can't give you financial advice or sign you up for a new policy, for such requirements we recommend you to contact your financial professional.

Automatic Exchange of Tax Information (AEOI)

AEOI is a standard through which tax authorities in different countries can routinely exchange information about financial accounts held by taxpayers. These standards include Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA) and Common Reporting Standard (CRS).

AEOI is the result of a broader Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) initiative to prevent tax evasion. It is a powerful tool that helps tax authorities to identify and confirm whether a financial account holder is complying with the tax laws of their country of tax residence.

Zurich as a financial Institution must identify and report any of its account holders who are taxpayers in other countries in accordance with the AEOI agreements.

Once tax information is exchanged, the tax authority in each country compares that information with the customers own declaration of financial accounts.

If there is a discrepancy between the two sets of information, the tax authority may investigate.

If you are acting on behalf of a company or trust, please complete the Automatic Exchange of Information Self-certification for Entities in addition to this Withdrawal request form.

Conditionally assigned policies

If your policy is assigned as security against a loan, you must send us the assignee's agreement or ask them to issue us with a notice of reassignment before we can process any withdrawals or surrenders.

Trust policies

We will make any transfer payable to all the trustees. In some cases trustees may also authorise payment jointly to themselves or to their professional agent (e.g. a bank or solicitor). It is the trustees' responsibility to ensure that the proceeds of the policy are used in accordance with the terms of the trust. Some trusts specifically exclude the settlor (the person(s) who declared the trust) from benefiting from the proceeds of the policy.

3.1 UK Residents Only

The Elite International Bond (EIB), Global Choice, International Wealth Account (IWA) and International Wealth Account flexible contribution plan (IWA FCP) are made up of a number of identical clusters.

These clusters may enable UK tax resident policy owners to minimise the amount of income tax due when a partial surrender creates a chargeable gain for UK income tax purposes.

A partial surrender across all clusters up to your 5% tax deferral allowance means you do not have an immediate charge to income tax. When whole clusters are surrendered, there is no tax deferred allowance.

Partial surrenders may create a chargeable event. (We recommend you refer to your financial professional before completing the form).
